It's easy to think of preaching as something only a select group of people can do, namely those who are older, wiser, more educated, and certainly more confident than you. The truth, however, is God calls every single one of us to share the Gospel at one time or another. Whether it's an opportunity to preach from a pulpit, speak to a small group, or talk with a few individuals, you can learn how to develop a sermon that effectively shares the life-changing truth of the Bible with any who listen.

Following the simple instructions laid out in Anybody Can Preach, you can finally stop letting your age or perceived lack of education or talent hold you back and start trusting that when God calls you to speak, he also provides you with the ability to do so.

From gaining a better understanding of Jesus to learning how to analyze a Bible passage to practical tips on taking care of your voice, this easy guide supplies you with the necessary tools to create solid sermons again and again.
