The Billionaire's doubt

Harold Washington was 48, and a widow. He had pinned after his wife for a long 10 years since her death. His fear was that he would never find another woman like his Emily. Not only that but being a billionaire he had to wonder if all females were out for his money. Sandra Sims is a headstrong woman who despises men who have money. She is put off by Harold Washington during their first meeting when he accuses her of being a gold digger. Sandra is anything but that, and she take offense to his charge. Trying to get Sandra out of his mind, Harold calls to set up a meeting between the two of them. He hopes that he can capture her fire, because she reminds him of his Emily. When they meet the fireworks erupt in more ways than one, soon they are wrapped in a passionate embrace. Where will there fire lead to?
