Turning Pro: Summary of the Key Ideas - Original Book by Steven Pressfield Evolvo
"Turning Pro" was written as a sequel to "The War of Art". The book explains the differences between an amateur and a pro, which stem from their habits and their frames of mind. Turning pro is only a matter of choices. It is not about time, resources and skills, but about motivation, a person's strength of decision-making and commitment. The problem of resistance can be overcome by a simple change in behavior.

Who should read this book:
• People with great talents who are not using them the right way.
• Amateurs who want to turn into professionals.
• Procrastinators who have trouble getting things done.
