Beauty in the Shadows: An Illustrated Inventory of Wrought Iron in the Washington National Cathedral James Pittman

This disc is intended to complement "Beauty in the Shadows", a recently published book by Nol Putnam. The book is a work of art; a journey through the cathedral conducted by master blacksmith Nol Putnam. The photography is superb and the text captures the essence of the art form as only a master of the trade with a talent for writing could do. It includes major works and a sampling of detail. From the early stages of planning the book it was intended to have a CD-based complete illustrated inventory, including the major gates and grilles with more detail, and all the railings, door hardware, light fixtures, statues and plaques. It includes all metals, distinguishing those that are wrought iron. Sit back and enjoy the wrought iron of the cathedral from the most profound gates to the simplest hinge strap or railing in 2,284 photos.
