Life is full of surprises and challenges, none more so for John and his wife Pat when an accident changes John's life forever. For Brad, Ed, Jack and Bugsy the forthcoming marathon will define them as runners. Follow these characters on their roller-coaster ride of life.

5* review from Lorraine Clark

A really good read, with intrigue from the first paragraph. I particularly like the way the author has set the book out. In the build up he introduces the characters, each with their individual qualities and conflicting attitudes. It all builds up nicely to the race itself which he has chosen to tackle mile by mile, whereby accentuating the tension and bringing it all to a neat conclusion. A fine first effort from this promising new author.
