Many people think of hazing as non harmful. However, in todays world, hazing, at the very least, can pose multiple questions in questionable behavior to criminal conduct which can lead to prison not to mention the ruination of a career. Hazing: rituals of bondage -- discusses the issue of hazing as it relates to popular culture/society. The book first introduces the over all perspective of hazing including legalities. After which the book discusses case histories at the high school, college, professional sport, military and work place levels. Included are a number of photos. These case histories provide current examples to the reader.
