Pierce and Gabe are now married and learning to adjust to their new life. Pierce continues in her medical residency while Gabe is determined to become fully legit. Pierce is forming a bond with her family and allowing them into her life. As with any new marriage, there are struggles; Gabe wants his wife to not work so hard while Pierce wishes her husband can get his business affairs in order so he can spend more time at home. Unfortunately for them both, the past shows up causing chaos in their lives. Agent Michael Johns is determined to find out what happened to Ace and he doesn't care who he has to cross, align with or hurt to do it. He's set his sights on Pierce as the answer to all his questions and refuses to let go. British still loves Gabe and, despite being banned from his life for her previous transgressions, she's got a surprise that she sees as a surefire ticket to get back into his life and his heart... forever. Although they vowed to be together forever, will the secrets they are keeping tear Pierce and Gabe apart or can love once again conquer all?
