How to Get Suspended from UKIP & the BNP in 10 Articles & 2 Tweets Jack Sen

Former UKIP parliamentary candidate for Lancashire, Jack Sen, believes his being suspended from the party during his parliamentary campaign, together with the fact that Nigel Farage has a secret pact with the BBC and mainstream media, demonstrate that UKIP, like the Lib/Lab/Con regime, is willing to put foreign and business interests above British interests.

Jack's hard hitting words and compilation of essays penned by Britain and America's foremost nationalists - Jez Turner, former Members of European Parliament, Andrew Brons and Nick Griffin, Matthew Heimbach among others - exposes UKIP as an establishment safety valve, as much as it entertains.

Back story

Jack Sen, author of "How to Get Suspended from UKIP & the BNP in 10 Articles & 2 Tweets", was the United Kingdom Independence Party's (UKIP) prospective Member of Parliament for West Lancashire before being unceremoniously, and quite publicly, suspended by Nigel Farage; all this just one week prior to the General Election because of his honesty and attempts to broach the subjects of indigenous displacement in Britain, and British cultural suicide.

In spite of being publicly humiliated by the party he'd fought for, Mr Sen still managed to procure almost 13% of his constituency's vote, surpassing several high ranking UKIP MEP's which included Paul Nuttall, Louise Bours and Paddy O'Flynn.

He currently writes for the Occidental Observer and a variety of other online and print publications, as well as runs www.britishrenaissance.org

"We've got over 5000 people standing at this election, and less than a handful have caused us a problem. I'm sorry about what Jack Sen did. We suspended him." UKIP Leader, Nigel Farage.

Review

"Most honest commentary on our state of affairs I've read in decades. Anne Coulter and Katie Hopkins have nothing on Sen's brilliant insight." A. Alexandra, Male Renaissance Magazine
