A drop of love, and always a thirst for more.

A journey into love and the emotions people face in their voyage to find the one, and themselves along the way. Christian Medina creates small portraits of burning hearts, hopeless romantics, and lost and broken souls so beautifully uplifting, and sometimes so tearfully tragic, that they bleed through paper and eyes alike.

What started as a daily catharsis in form of short poems and quotes on the social media application Instagram, has grown into a book which separates the love from the heart break, the flesh from the steel. Open up and look into your own heart, and be ready to feel the love and the blade.
