Luke is particularly empathetic to women, emphasizing how the Savior vailed them. Only in Luke's Gospel will you: Come into the home of Elizabeth as Mary arrives, breathless. Ponder with Mary the amazing events of the Savior's birth. Experience the wonder of the sisters of Bethany as they welcome the Savior into their home. Smile as the women surprise the men on Easter morning.

Many believe that a key source for Luke was the women who traveled with Jesus. Aha! Now we know why Luke so warms our hearts. Often sisters may have been telling the story.

On this journey, rather than "driving" quickly through all of Luke (though you may read the whole Gospel), we will look carefully at twelve "stops" particularly intriguing to women.

This guide is one of a series written by Dee especially with the interests of women, and the way they like to relate, in mind.
