How to Go to Heaven: An Esoteric Dictionary of Theology Craig L Kelley

The afterlife, heaven, paradise; what greater mysteries are there besides what happens after we depart from the only existence we've ever known? And how can we possibly learn anything about "the other side" from this side?

Craig Kelley has studied theology and related fields over the last fifteen years. Some areas of study include the following: theology; comparative religions; metaphysics, physics, and quantum theories; psychology, parapsychology, and transpersonal psychology; mind, body, and spirit; consciousness, cosmic consciousness, and cosmology; philosophy; the esoteric, mysteries, and mystical teachings of antiquity; energy, vibrations, and matter; our creation and the Creator; our evolution, and spiritual evolution; non-locality, parallel worlds, universes, and multiverses; the afterlife, the spiritual central universe, superuniverses, heaven, and Paradise.

How to Go to Heaven: An Esoteric Dictionary of Theology reveals what he discovered. A thorough collection of theologically related words, terms, phrases and concepts, this text offers readers the essential lexicon needed to understand the mysteries of the afterlife and discover their path to heaven.

Written for anyone desiring a cosmic consciousness, How to Go to Heaven is the go-to reference guide for better understanding the life that is to come. Readers can expand their knowledge of traditional terms, as well as more esoteric concepts—and learn how to expedite their way to heaven.

Study the words—discover the truth.
