God Makes No Mistakes Jane McCaskill

You will find this autobiography of Jane's life to be funny at times. At times it will bring you to tears. But the best part of the book is seeing the many answers to her prayers, even when she doubted they would be answered, questioned God, and at time even doubted the Lord's love for her and her family. However, through all the many trials and "upsets" she found the Lord to be there for her, and even, perhaps after a long period of time, she could see that "all things do work together for good to those who love the Lord." I have known Jane for close to 30 years, and as my dearest friend, I can attest to the truthfulness about which she has written. This book will be a blessing, especially to those who are going through periods of trial, and who feel that the Lord is just not listening to them. It will help your faith grow as you learn that "He does all things well." Sarah Stump Jane McCaskill was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She graduated from Gray High School, attended Business school and was a graduate & teacher at National Academy of Hair Styling. She also attended Piedmont Bible College and did language study at the North Carolina School of the Arts. Jane has been a hairdresser, missionary, church secretary and director of a Christian Daycare. She has been a faithful companion, a true helpmate, friend and lover to her husband Bob for 33 years. The "Apples of her eyes" are her three daughters to whom she is always the devoted mother, confidant, counselor and friend. Above all she is a faithful witness of the Grace of Jesus Christ and a compassionate friend to all she meets.
