Wouldn't you love to experience success doing what you love to do? Get ready to transform yourself for success with the UnConventional Nurse. This book addresses burnout; the major reason that nurses are leaving the profession of nursing and shows nurses how to use their nursing experience to take charge and re-invent their careers. Michelle Podlesni has experienced success as a clinical nurse, an executive in the corporate world running a multi-million dollar software company and as a nurse entrepreneur and business owner. Michelle's book brings decades of her real life experiences, successes and passion in a step by step roadmap showing how you can push through the limits of your expectations, achieve your goals and live a life greater than you have ever imagined. Strategies, skills and examples are presented in a relevant and down to earth fashion; UnConventional Nurse encourages and empowers nurses! If you want to advance your career, are thinking about making a change but aren't sure how, want to be clear on what you really want, achieve more out of life, or if you are thinking of retiring but still want to make a difference, then this book is for you! Michelle's book champions nurses and speaks to the nurses heart.
