The Girls of Mischief Bay: by Susan Mallery | Summary & Analysis

This is a Summary & Analysis of The Girls of Mischief Bay. Susan Mallery's newest series begins with The Girls of Mischief Bay, a story centered on three unlikely friends as they journey through some of life's toughest trials together against the backdrop of a California coastal town.

At thirty years old, Nicole Lord is living the typical suburban life in the California coastal town of Mischief Bay. She is a wife to her husband, Eric, a mother to their toddler son, and the successful business owner of her own Pilates studio. But when Eric unexpectedly quits his job to pursue a career in screenwriting all of the responsibilities and finances fall on Nicole's shoulders. Her husband spends days working on his writing without a thought to their family or home life and Nicole is desperately trying to single-handedly juggle an overflowing schedule. Things go from bad to worse as the Hollywood dream pulls Eric further and further away. Her marriage is on precarious ground but she doesn't know how to get back the husband she married.
