When realities merge and miracles abound, one thing is for certain... we are never alone.

It takes courage to follow your heart, find your purpose in life and fulfill your destiny. Sometimes, discovering your gifts is only half the battle. The other half is over-coming the limiting self-beliefs and fears that hold you back. It's time to remember that you are not but one small person. You are a creative Spirit made in the likeness of God. It is time to claim your greatness and your power. It is time to cultivate your Seed of Love in this world.

Engaging the heart and soul of the reader using the Native American tradition of story, Cheryl Lee Harnish delivers a powerful and inspiring message of purpose, faith and courage. It's an engaging tale of following the heart, walking the path, and discovering purpose. This emotionally charged and spellbinding narration opens your heart and mind to living your highest purpose and claiming your destiny.
