Love at the Altar (The Destiny Book 1) K.L. Woolerey

When Destiny Richards, an ambitious, beautiful, party-girl, is invited to church by her best friend, Latisha – she has no idea that her life is about to change. Meeting her at the altar is the devastatingly handsome, dynamic Preacher, Pastor Cliff Lawrence. He is the man she has been waiting for all her life, but can she give up her wild ways to be a Preacher's wife and a dutiful Christian?

Latisha Edwards has always been in love with Pastor Cliff Lawrence. Wholesome Latisha believes that Cliff should marry her and not Destiny and is consumed by jealousy at the prospect of their relationship. But she is really about to put her friendship and faith on the line for a man that may never love her?

Ida Smith is by no means a traditional Christian girl. She is spirited, sexy, and has eyes for one man – Pastor Cliff Lawrence. Discovering that she has lost her man to Destiny – Ida wants to get even – and evil. She sets out on a plan to split them up, for good!

Bonded by their love for one man, these three women have to learn the hard way. In the Bible, the scripture Mathew 6:33 says, But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

But if God is the last thing on your mind – can there really be a happy conclusion?

Perfect for fans of Christian romance, Love at the Altar is a story of love, self-discovery, faith, and God. The sequel, Destiny's Secret, is available now.
