A clean American mail order bride western historical novelette Christmas holiday romance.

It's 1886 love is starting to warm the hearts of three sisters on their way to snowy Denver Colorado.

This historical, inspirational Western holiday romance trilogy is about three East Coast sisters Clara, Martha and Emma and how they go through physical and emotional challenges for the betterment of their selves and their future families out West. It is a tale of adventure, trials, tribulations and miracles that test their faith for the improvement of their families. They turn around their tragic circumstances with strong faith and discover genuine men and true love.

Meet Martha, her big sister Clara took care of her due in part to the fact that she walks with a distinct limp and is a little shy. She wants to become a woman doctor, which means she would be the first one in Wyoming. She has little money to pay for this education and a low self-esteem too. This story is about her uphill battle to improve herself and find true love.

Can Martha accept Daniels bad habits and invisible warts?

Can Martha succeed in a profession dominated by men?

Can Martha and Daniel find true love in their inward and outward imperfections?

Jump on the wagon and help deliver Daniel Caruthers beautiful handmade furniture to Denver in a snowstorm, you will also get to know Martha and where her real courage comes from. You could see for yourself firsthand, the miracle that happens in the little church nicknamed Sanctuary in the tree-covered mountains of Colorado.

“This is a Christmas holiday story about fear, faith, miracles and true love.”

While this book is part of a trilogy, it can definitely be read as a standalone book.
