The Shattered Road Kerrie J Clarke

I have two sets of memories. One from the 1800's and one from the present. How is this possible you ask? The answer: I dared venture into the darkness and void within myself, following the whisperings of my soul and night time dreams, leading me back in time, to the place I last lived; explaining who I am now. I do not expect many to believe this story because I have learned that if people are unwilling or unable to go "there" within themselves, it's not possible others have either - meaning me. But that is not the case.....
