Growing up in New York City is an adventure all on it's own, but it's not enough for the irrepressible Henry S. Kapowcawicz. With an extraordinary imagination and a knack for making friends in unusual places, Henry is used to curious things happening to him.

When he meets Walter, a subway rat with a big dream, Henry can't resist the challenge of trying to help his new friend attempt a feat that seems impossible. But will they succeed against the odds?

A humorous story about the magical things that can be achieved with friendship, determination, and belief in oneself and others.
